

We've got another prime example of the need for stricter control protecting the public's ownership of the airways. Sinclair Broadcasting is putting heavy pressure on its local stations to air a clear anti-Kerry documentary a few days before the election.

We need clear rules and strong enforcement of rules of political impartiality. Otherwise the public airwaves become the private political tool of the most powerful or best connected bidder.

(Rev.) Thomas P Wahl, O.S.B.
Collegeville, MN